

SR-JV80-19 House Collection

Roland®

Warning: Deep House Grooves Ahead.

The SR-JV80-19 House Collection is loaded with all the fresh loops, phrases and keyboard sounds needed to lay down your next house track. Developed in collaboration with Ueberschall, many of the sounds and loops were created by legendary house music producer Mousse T. Combined with the previously-released Techno and Hip-Hop expansions, Roland has the bases of groove music covered.

*Product pictured is a prototype model. Actual product appearance may be subject to change.

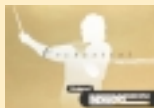

- User-installable wave expansion board for expandable XV/XP/JV synthesizers
